DANNY AYALON – www.thetruthaboutisrael.org.il

Danny Ayalon is a modern diplomat who has served at the nexus of Israeli foreign policy. He served as foreign policy advisor to three consecutive Israeli Prime Ministers - Benjamin Netanyahu (Likud), Ehud Barak (Labor), and Ariel Sharon (Kadima), participating in peace talks and shaping foreign policy throughout the 1990s. In 2002, Prime Minister Sharon sent Ayalon to be Israel's Ambassador to United States. He later was elected to Israel's parliament and served as the Deputy Foreign Minister of Israel. Ambassador Ayalon is the founder of "The Truth About Israel," a not-for-profit company whose mission is to educate and train the public about the facts of Israel in today's world.

MOSHE SHARON

Moshe Sharon is a specialist in Arabic epigraphy and has recorded all the Arabic inscriptions in the Holy Land. Since 1997, he has published five volumes of his opus, still in progress, Corpus Inscriptionum Arabicarum Palaestinae. In 1999, Professor Sharon was appointed to the chair of Baha'i Studies and is now Professor Emeritus of Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Professor Sharon served as Prime Minister Menachem Begin's adviser on Arab Affairs and took part in the negotiations for peace with Egypt.

INGE BUHS – http://neryaakov.com/english/the\_center\_for\_holocaust\_survivors.htm

Inge Buhs is a German born Christian. In 1983, Buhs went to Israel to work in a variety of jobs and eventually for a German doctor. It was during her employment with the doctor that she met Bella Steiner and through her met many Holocaust survivors. In 2000, Buhs founded Ner Ya'akov, with the purpose of caring for Holocaust survivors in any possible way. On the surface, Ner Ya'akov seems like the other charities and associations, but unlike the others in Jerusalem, the organization was founded by a German Christian who has devoted her life to helping the aging survivors in the Jewish state.
